

You're invited to a

Parent University

When is it?

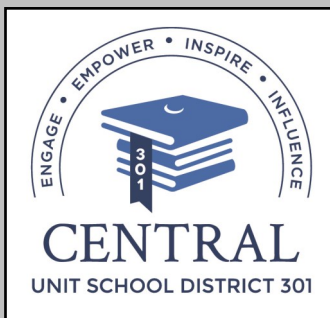

Wednesday, November 20th.
Sessions start at 6:00 and 7:15. Come for one or both sessions!

Where is it?

Central High School
44W625 Plato Rd, Burlington

What else do I need to know?

- ◆ Childcare will be provided
- ◆ Light refreshments will be served
- ◆ RSVPs are appreciated, but not required. Click here to let us know you're coming!

What is Parent University?

District 301 offers Parent University events so parents and guardians have the opportunity to learn more about the district and how to support their students. Sessions vary at each event and are selected based upon feedback from the Central community.

Session Descriptions

Vaping—What Parents Need to Know

Offered at 6:00 and 7:15

With a number of vaping-related deaths in recent months, concerns about vaping are growing. The Renz Center will share valuable information about vaping, its effect on teens, warning signs to look for, and more.

All About Social-Emotional Learning: An Overview of Frequently Asked Questions & District Initiatives

Offered at 6:00 and 7:15

Kate Vincent, District 301 Social-Emotional Learning Coordinator, will provide an overview of Social-Emotional Learning (SEL), including the correlation between SEL and student achievement and D301 SEL initiatives.

Attendees will have a chance to win a gift card to local restaurant!